

St Andrew's Journey Through Lent

Lent Studies

A Season for the Spirit - A study based on the book by Martin L. Smith:

- Thursday nights 7-8:30pm in the Paxton-Hall Room (5 March - 2 April)
OR
- Friday mornings 10-11:30am in the Paxton-Hall Room (28th Feb- 3 April)

Broken - A discussion group for Lent based on this BBC series, will be held on Sunday afternoons in the Undercroft, between 2:00pm and 4:00pm on March 1, 8, 15, 22, 29 and April 5.

Quiet Morning - What kind of fool am I?

A Quiet Morning for Lent with Bishop Ron Williams - Saturday 7 March, 9:00am-12:30pm.

St Paul described the message of the cross as foolishness, and down the ages there have been those saints who dared to be fools for Christ. Bishop Ron Williams will lead a Quiet Morning exploring the idea of the fool and the comic yet powerful working of the gospel in our lives. We will meet in the church and all materials and morning tea provided..

Meditation

Our Christian Meditation Group meets weekly on Wednesday nights at 7pm in the church. During Lent, in place of a talk, we will explore the poetry of Lent through Mary Oliver's "Devotions". All are welcome, even (or especially) if you have never meditated before. You are welcome to join us before meditation for refreshments and conversation in the Paxton-Hall room anytime from 6:15pm.
